Rust College recognizes that standard financial aid forms do not always capture the full financial profile of our students due to unusual circumstances. Through a dependency override process, the Office of Financial Aid may be able to override your dependency status for the 2024-2025 FAFSA school year, which could result in a recalculation of aid eligibility at Rust College. All override cases are subject to a review and are not guaranteed.

All decisions are final.

All documentation required must be attached. Incomplete information and telephone requests will not be accepted. Please NOTE the student have the primary responsibility for any financial obligation that may exist prior to the completion of the review process. Also, the Financial Aid staff may ask for additional documentation, at any time during the review process.

Examples of situations that can be considered an unusual circumstance include:

- You have left home due to an abusive or threatening environment.
- You have been abandoned by or estranged from your parents and have not been adopted.
- You were granted refugee or asylee status and are separated from your parents, or your parents are displaced in a foreign country.
- You are a victim of human trafficking.
- You are otherwise unable to contact or locate your parents and have not been adopted
- Incarceration or institutionalization of both parents

Examples of situations that cannot be considered an unusual circumstance include:

- Parents refuse to contribute to the student's education.
- Parents are unwilling to provide information on the FAFSA or for verification forms.
- Parents do not claim the student as a dependent for income tax purposes.
- Student demonstrates total self-sufficiency.

Response and Turnaround Time:

An appeal for Unusual Circumstances is often sent to a committee to process. Please allow at least 3 weeks for a response. During peak processing times (January through August), it may take 4-6 weeks for an appeal to be reviewed by the committee. The student will be informed of the decision by e-mail; we will use the e-mail address provided at the top of this form.

Dependency Status Override

- Letter from student
- A detailed letter from a 3rd party source familiar with your family circumstances. The source should be a teacher, minister, lawyer, physician, counselor, social worker or other professional who is willing to verify your circumstances. Do not use another family member.
- Student’s 2022 and 2023 tax returns or other documentation of resources or in-kind support.
- A copy of ALL living expenses such as utility bills (light, telephone, gas), house/apartment lease, vehicle insurance, etc.
- Court documents or police reports.
- Current pay stubs

Statement of Understanding:

I/we certify that all of the information provided, and the supporting documentation submitted is true and accurate.

I/we understand that the request will not be considered until all adequate and complete documentation is submitted. In addition, the Office of Financial Aid may require additional documentation in order to verify and substantiate the situation.

I/we understand that the Office of Financial Aid will review the request and let me/us know of the outcome in approximately 3 weeks.

I/we understand that completion of this form does not guarantee additional aid, and Billing Office/Student Accounts payment deadlines and procedures need to be adhered to during the review process in order to avoid potential late fees.

For many forms requested by the Financial Aid Office, you will need to provide a "wet" signatures. Names typed in script fonts are not acceptable.
