PREFACE

PREFACE

The Rust College Fact Book is published annually by the Office of Institutional Research and serves as an official reference to pertinent information about the College's history, facilities, students, personnel and academic programs.

This publication contains a broad array of data which is derived from a variety of sources. We are thankful to all those who cooperated and responded to our request for information. Without their assistance, this publication would not be possible.

This book also provides a historical context in order to review the college's development through the years and to be used as a reference by the administrators, faculty, staff and trustees in planning for the future.

The Fact Book is designed for informational purposes and your comments or suggestions for enhancement are sought for future improvement.

GENERAL INFORMATION

OVERVIEW

Rust College

was established in 1866 with a rich heritage of local, regional and national history. The college is a four-year private, co-educational historically Black liberal arts establishment. Located on 126 acres of rolling hills in North Mississippi in the quaint town of Holly Springs. Affiliated with the United Methodist Church, Rust is fully accredited by the Southern Association of College and Schools. The academic programs provide orientation for community service, leadership and human relations. Students are prepared for professional and graduate study along with employment in many various fields.

Mission Statement

is a historically Black, senior liberal arts college founded in 1866 by the Freedman's Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal church. The College, related to the United Methodist Church, is dedicated to serve students with a variety of academic preparations, through instruction in the humanities, social and behavioral sciences, natural sciences, business and education. Rust College recognizes the three-fold functions of education as being teaching, research and community service. Its primary mission is teaching. It offers students a well-rounded program which will acquaint them with cultural, moral, and spiritual values, both in theory and in practice.

A key aspect of the College's mission is the pursuit of excellence through the provision of a quality college education for all, regardless of race, religion, sex, national origin or ethnic background.

 Approved by the Rust College Board of Trustees on March 26, 1994

Rust College Institutional Goals

GENERAL

- 1. To develop an institutional model for assessing and evaluating the effectiveness of the College in relationship to its purpose and mission;
- 2. To strengthen the College's overall academic program in teaching, research and community service:
- 3. To improve the College's overall campus environment;
- 4. To stabilize full-time enrollment at 1,000;
- 5. To increase the endowment fund to more than $20 million and improve the system for acquiring and managing the College's fiscal resources, to establish endowed chairs, to increase student financial aid, to increase salaries, and to maintain and renovate physical facilities;
- 6. To improve the colleges technologies to meet Management Information Systems (MIS) needs for academic and administrative areas; and
- 7. To improve the College's public image and visibility in general with special attention given to North Mississippi and the Memphis areas.

Full-Time Enrollment

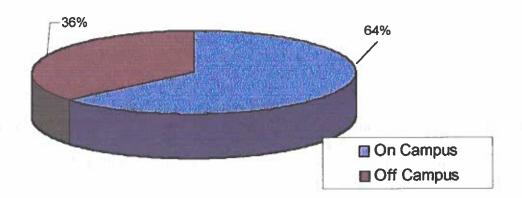

Traditionally full-time enrollment for baccalaureate degree producing liberal arts colleges have been young men and women recently graduating from high school between the ages of 18 and 21. Recent years have shown an increase in the number of working adults seeking degrees. The number of females enrolled continues to out-number males. The number of students entering college from outside the continental United States continues to rise.
