Preface

Preface

The Rust College Fact Book is published annually by the Office of Institutional Research and serves as an official reference to pertinent information about the College's history, facilities, students, personnel and academic programs.

This publication contains a broad array of data which is derived from a variety of sources. We are thankful to all those who cooperated and responded to our request for information. Without their assistance, this publication would not be possible.

This book also provides a historical context in order to review the college's development through the years and to be used as a reference by the administrators, faculty, staff and trustees in planning for the future.

The Fact Book is designed for informational purposes and your comments or suggestions for enhancement are sought for future improvement.

This will be the first year the Fact Book is also on the Rust College Web Page <http://www.rustcollege.edu> (drop down box: About Rust)

General Information

OVERVIEW

Rust College

was established in 1866 with a rich heritage of local, regional and national history. The college is a four-year private, co-educational historically Black liberal arts establishment. Located on 126 acres of rolling hills in North Mississippi in the quaint town of Holly Springs. Affiliated with the United Methodist Church, Rust is fully accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. The academic programs provide orientation for community service, leadership and human relations. Students are prepared for professional and graduate study along with employment in many various fields.

MISSION STATEMENT

is a historically Black, senior liberal arts college founded in 1866 by the Freedman's Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal church. The College, related to the United Methodist Church, is dedicated to serve students with a variety of academic preparations, through instruction in the humanities, social and behavioral sciences, natural sciences, business and education. Rust College recognizes the three-fold functions of education as being teaching, research and community service. Its primary mission is teaching. It offers students a well-rounded program which will acquaint them with cultural, moral, and spiritual values, both in theory and in practice.

A key aspect of the College's mission is the pursuit of excellence through the provision of a quality college education for all, regardless of race, religion, sex, national origin or ethnic background.

 Approved by the Rust College Board of Trustees on March 26, 1994

Rust College Institutional Goals

GENERAL

1. To develop an institutional model for assessing and evaluating the effectiveness of the College in relationship to its purpose and mission;
2. To strengthen the College's overall academic program in teaching, research and community service;
3. To improve the College's overall campus environment;
4. To stabilize full-time enrollment at 1,000;
5. To increase the endowment fund to more than $20 million and improve the system for acquiring and managing the College's fiscal resources, to establish endowed chairs, to increase student financial aid, to increase salaries, and to maintain and renovate physical facilities;
6. To improve the College's technologies to meet Management Information Systems (MIS) needs for academic and administrative areas; and
7. To improve the College's public image and visibility in general with special attention given to North Mississippi and the Memphis areas.

THE CAMPUS NEWS BRIEF

The campus News Briefs, a weekly newsletter, is produced by the Office of Public Information. This is used to keep the faculty, staff and students informed about campus activities which will take place during the coming week.

ATHLETICS

Rust College is a member of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Division III. The college participates in the following intercollegiate sports: basketball; baseball; tennis; cross-country; track and field activities; and volleyball.

Rust College

2001-2002

Campus

CAMPUS

Rust College is located thirty-five miles southeast of Memphis, Tennessee, in the city of Holly Springs, Mississippi. The campus consists of one hundred twenty-six acres on the north side of town. The entrance of the campus is located on Rust Avenue which connects North Randolph Street and State Highway 78 named Memphis Street. There are forty-seven building located on seventy-five acres of the campus. A twelve apartment complex behind the campus; five duplex apartments and four single dwellings located on Rust Avenue are for faculty and staff members.

OAKVIEW

According to oral history, Oakview Mansion was present when the church purchased the property in 1866 on a site reported to have been a slave auction market place prior to the Civil War. An Annex was added to the rear of the building in 1905 and again in 1918. Documents show that renovations took place in 1973, 1985 and 1994. Historic exterior preservation work was done in 2001 to duplicate the building's original detail. Special attention was given to the preservation of original brickwork. The request for Oakview to be placed on the National Register of Historical Places in the United States was done in 1976. Records reflect the addition of the building in 1982. Oakview currently houses the Public Relations and Alumni Affairs Office and includes two guest bedrooms, a storage area, a conference room and workstations.

THE McCARTY-VARNELL BUSINESS, COMPUTER AND SOCIAL SCIENCE BUILDING

The McCarty-Varnell Business, Computer and Social Science Building is a two-story brick structure which was constructed in 1989. It occupies 44,000 square feet, 80 percent classroom space, and 20 percent auditorium. The first floor contains The Heard Auditorium with a seating capacity of 383, a lecture classroom that will seat 75, a secretarial office pool, and classrooms. Computer Science and the Division of Social Science and the Division of Business are located in the complex.

THE McCOY ADMINISTRATION BUILDING

The McCoy Administration Building, named in honor of alumnus and eighth president Dr. Lee Marcus McCoy, is the landmark of Rust College. McCoy Hall, a two-story brick building with a tower approximately seven stories high, was completed in 1947. It is situated at an elevation of 590 feet. Its gross area is 23,000 square feet and the net assignable area is 20,464 square feet excluding the annex which was added in 1971 providing additional floor space of 1,826 square feet.

The first floor of the building houses the offices of the president, vice-president, institutional research, personnel, development, grants and contracts, fiscal affairs, and the computer center. The second floor houses the offices of the academic dean, the registrar, admissions and recruitment director, financial aid director and career development director. Also, located on the second floor is the president's conference room. McCoy is listed in the National Register of Historical Places in the United States.

Something very unique to Rust Campus and Holly Springs is this building had installed in 1948 (gifted by an alumnus) the clock with chimes placed in the tower. For 45 years the chimes rang out over the town. In 1993 the chimes were replaced and they now ring a hymn every hour on the hour from 6:00 am to 11:00 pm. They continue to be heard across the town and into the countryside.
